By returning this form, we agree to the following terms and conditions set forth by the umati organizers (here: VDW, the German Machine Tool Builders' Association) (see page 2).

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- We can only participate because we are an “umati partner” and have signed a Memorandum of Understanding
- We will connect at least one of the following to the umati demonstrator infrastructure following the instructions available at <https://showcase.umati.org/>: machine tool, other machinery, component, device, or software. Please fill in the list on the following page
- We will realize a test connection by September 08, 2023 the latest. If we miss this date, we will not be listed as a participating company in the live demonstration with regard to marketing materials and public relations issued or provided to visitors at the trade show.
- We will display the “umati connected device” label (provided by the umati organizer) on our connected equipment at the trade show. If the equipment is connected from another location than our booth, we will prominently feature the “umati connected device” label at our booth.
- We will display our participation in umati activities at our booth by placing the “umati partner” display and information material prominently at our booth.
- We will support the marketing and public relations campaign by providing statements and feeding our information channels (website, publications, press and media releases, social media activities) with umati-related information.

DISCLAIMER: This umati live demonstration is sponsored by the umati organizers free of charge for registered participants. This includes access to the umati demonstrator infrastructure (Broker and umati.app Dashboard), as well as marketing material and public relation efforts. Every participant bears his own cost for enabling connection of his equipment or service to the umati demonstrator infrastructure.

There is NO WARRANTY OR LIABILITY that this infrastructure is accessible or delivers the desired performance or accessibility during the trade show. Under no circumstances can the umati organizers be held responsible for or compensate expenses accrued by the participant.
